Junior League of Greenville Announces New Board of Directors Slate for 2021-2022

GREENVILLE, S.C.—The Junior League of Greenville, Inc., (JLG) is pleased to announce its new Board of Directors slate for its 2021-2022 year. The league is especially proud of this BOD slate as President-Elect Kimberly Witherspoon; an 11-year active member who has recent tenure as Community Impact Vice President, will be the first African American woman to serve in this role. Upon approval by membership in February, these women will steward the JLG toward its goals throughout the year beginning in June. New board members serve a one-year term and lead the organization in its community impact focus area initiatives and membership development.

The Junior League of Greenville, Inc., board of directors slate is made up of the following members:

President: Heath Beard
President-Elect: Kimberly Witherspoon
Communications Vice President: Lenna Blaser
Community Impact Vice President: Elizabeth DuBose
Finance Vice President: Meredith O'Malley
Fund Development Vice President: Laura Riddle
Membership Vice President: Cassie Shaw
Corresponding Secretary: Meredith Mason
Recording Secretary: Emily Buchanan
Strategic Planner: Sarah Brand
Board Manager: Elizabeth Keaton
Sustaining Advisor to the Board: Karen Arrington
Director of Administration: Tina Hampton
Treasurer: Elizabeth Campbell

"The Junior League of Greenville's ability to pivot quickly to continue to respond to the needs of our community has been impressive as we all have adjusted to life during the COVID-19 pandemic," said Heath Beard, upcoming JLG President. "I know we will continue to adapt in the near future to meet the needs of our members and the community just as the Junior League of Greenville has adapted over its almost 92-year history. I am so honored to be slated with such an incredible group of women to lead our membership and continue to fulfill our mission of developing the potential of women, promoting voluntarism and improving the Greenville community through the effective action of trained volunteers."
